

ALL HALLOW'S EVE ~ THE ANCESTORS ARE CALLING...

Rise up and Dance!

Tibetan Dakinis

The Original Dancing Queens whose joy-filled rituals dispel negativity

*Come join the Dance,
all you juicy wild women!*

Halloween is a magical time when the veil between the worlds is at its thinnest. The harvest is in. The land rests.

Throughout the world, people gather to remember the dead and to cast off what has 'died' within them.

Hear Hecate's Charge at the Crossroads. Light candles to your ancestors and those who have passed over this past year.

Join us for our ecstatic dance to usher in a New Year of hope and positive change.

Dress in costumes or ritual attire. Bring your brooms and drums, jack o lanterns, food to share for the potluck, and musical instruments.

Hallowe'en Night

Saturday, Oct. 31, 2009

7 - 10 pm

$5-20 sliding scale; Girls 6-12 free!

Thomas Paine Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

3424 Ridge Pike in Collegeville, PA

for further information and reservations:

www.WomanWisdom.com

